〔 I 〕 次の英文を読み、後の問いに答えなさい。

(1) A man was driving his car, when he saw an old lady, *stranded on the side of the road. He saw that she needed help. So he stopped his *Pontiac near her *Mercedes and got out.

He smiled, while he was approaching her, still she was worried, as nobody had stopped for hours. Moreover, he did not look safe, as his appearance was so poor and *shabby. He could see, how frightened she was, so he tried to calm her: "I'm here to help you, don't worry. My name is Bryan Anderson."

The tire was flat, so he had to crawl under the car. While changing the tire, he got dirty and his hands were hurt.

When the job was done, she asked how much she owed him for his help. Bryan smiled. He said: "If you really want to pay me back, the next time you see someone, who needs help, give that person the needed assistance. And think of me."

At the same evening, the lady stopped by a small cafe. That place looked *dingy. Then she saw a waitress, nearly eight months *pregnant, wiping her wet hair with a towel. The waitress had a sweet friendly smile, although she had spent on her feet the whole day.

The lady wondered how someone, who has so little, can be so kind and giving to a stranger. Then she remembered Bryan.

The lady had finished her meal and paid with a hundred dollar bill. The waitress went to get change and when she came back, the lady was gone. She left a note on the napkin: "You don't owe me anything. Somebody once helped me, just like now I'm helping you. If you really want to pay me back, do not let this chain of love end with you." The waitress found four more one hundred bills under the napkin.

That night the waitress came home earlier. She was thinking about the lady and the money she left. She was wondering, how the lady could know, how much she and her husband needed it, especially now, when the baby will soon arrive. She knew that her husband worried about that, so she was glad to tell him good news. Then she kissed him and whispered "Now everything will be all right. I love you, Bryan Anderson."

〔解答番号は 11 ～ 15 〕

We all know that running a few kilometers each day is good for our health, right? Well, what we didn't know, until now, is that running too much could be bad for us. New research suggests that running long distances regularly for many years could shorten our life instead of extending it. The study is from the Minneapolis Heart Institute Foundation. Researcher Dr. James O'Keefe said too much running can cause *plaque to build up inside your heart. This can lead to heart disease. He wrote: "Years of extreme exercise appears to erase some benefits you get from moderate exercise, so that your risk of heart disease, of dying of *coronary disease, is the same as an inactive person."

The researchers looked at the health and training of 3,300 runners over the age of 35. Seventy per cent of them ran more than 30 kilometers a week. The study found that men who were marathon runners for 25 years had 62 per cent more plaque in their heart than men of the same age who did little or no exercise. Another doctor and long-time runner, John Hagan, said he felt cheated. He has been running marathons and doing *triathlons since 1967. He used to run up to 60 kilometers per week. He said: "As a physician and a runner, I felt betrayed. I thought I was out there exhausting myself, building an absolutely *indestructible heart." Dr. Hagan advised people to exercise regularly but not to overdo things.
